A senior vice president for Enterprise Community Investment, Inc., Raoul Moore oversees the efforts to originate, analyze, structure and acquire Low-Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) developments throughout the United States for Enterprise's national, regional and proprietary LIHTC investment funds.

From 2007 to 2008, Raoul served as the regional vice president for the eastern United States operations, where he managed Enterprise's efforts to acquire LIHTC developments and place equity in the eastern United States. In this role, he oversaw the acquisition of an investment portfolio of more than $500 million and guided staff in New York City and Columbia, Md.

Raoul has spent more than 30 years in the real estate industry and has extensive experience in development, finance, deal structuring, asset management, leasing and sales. Prior to joining Enterprise, Raoul spent more than 13 years with a national LIHTC syndicator, most recently as vice president of acquisition, where he co-directed all LIHTC acquisition transactions in the United States.

Raoul holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Denver.

Enterprise is a leading provider of the development capital and expertise it takes to create decent, affordable homes and rebuild communities. For more than 25 years, Enterprise has introduced neighborhood solutions through public-private partnerships with financial institutions, governments, community organizations and others that share our vision. Enterprise has raised and invested $10.6 billion in equity, grants and loans to help build or preserve more than 270,000 affordable rental and for-sale homes to create vital communities. Enterprise is currently investing in communities at a rate of $1 billion a year.
