As senior vice president for Enterprise Community Investment, Inc., Elizabeth (Beth) O'Leary directs the Asset Management team, which is responsible for ensuring that Enterprise's national portfolio of over 1,600 properties is well maintained and in conformance with tax credit provisions. She plays a key role in the development of Enterprise's overall corporate strategy as it relates to asset management initiatives, community revitalization and Enterprise's social mission.

Beth joined Enterprise in 1994 as asset manager, and was promoted to senior asset manager, director and then to vice president in 1998, serving in that role until December 2004. After two years working as a consultant, mostly on Year 15 issues in New York City, Beth returned to Enterprise in July 2006.

Prior to joining Enterprise, Beth served for seven years in various capacities with the Northwest Bronx Community & Clergy Coalition, including three years as its executive director. Previously, she served for two years with New York City's Department of Housing Preservation and Development, where she focused on neighborhood preservation.

Beth holds a master's degree in regional planning with a concentration in housing from Cornell University and a bachelor's degree in philosophy from Williams College.

Enterprise is a leading provider of the development capital and expertise it takes to create decent, affordable homes and rebuild communities. For more than 25 years, Enterprise has introduced neighborhood solutions through public-private partnerships with financial institutions, governments, community organizations and others that share our vision. Enterprise has raised and invested $10.6 billion in equity, grants and loans to help build or preserve more than 270,000 affordable rental and for-sale homes to create vital communities. Enterprise is currently investing in communities at a rate of $1 billion a year.
