As vice president for Enterprise Community Investment, Inc., Susan Wilson is responsible for providing technical oversight on the complex financial structuring of projects in Enterprise's national equity funds. She also provides tax credit expertise to Enterprise's partnership accounting department.

Prior to joining Enterprise in 1995 as a fund manager for the Midwest region, Sue was a tax principal with the accounting firm of Reznick Fedder & Silverman. In this role, she assisted clients in structuring low-income housing transactions and meeting the various technical and compliance requirements inherent in low-income housing. Prior to that, she was a tax manager at the accounting firm of Coopers & Lybrand.

Sue is a Certified Public Accountant. She graduated with a bachelor's degree from the University of Delaware and holds a master's degree in Legal & Ethical Studies from the University of Baltimore.

Enterprise is a leading provider of the development capital and expertise it takes to create decent, affordable homes and rebuild communities. For more than 25 years, Enterprise has introduced neighborhood solutions through public-private partnerships with financial institutions, governments, community organizations and others that share our vision. Enterprise has raised and invested $10.6 billion in equity, grants and loans to help build or preserve more than 270,000 affordable rental and for-sale homes to create vital communities. Enterprise is currently investing in communities at a rate of $1 billion a year.
